GOSSIP FOR HOME PEOPLE

played a game of hal here with the Wichita team. It was with many expressions of: "Well, will you see how that girl ed the general nervously.

"Most of 'em," I said. "Why don't you throws-just like a man, etc." The two the pitcher and shortstop. Both played as men did, and they aught to, for they both were men. They had on wigs and dressed like the rest of the girls on the team, and both were small. Women baseball teams are probably financial successes, but from a baseball standpoint

KEPT AS A MEMENTO.

There is a bright little girl in the east had a hard time trying to kep a car. First one and another would be secured and o dire disaster would afflict the pet t also. As the kiften attempted to go through a doorway of the barn, the hig gifted original little girl took the piece of tail severed from the main stock and carefully placed it between the large family Bible and the dictionary to press it as flowers and leaves are pressed. Then corner of the parlor until one day her older sister noticed an odor in the room Bacrifice. stump of the cat's tail was found and the

DOLD'S GREAT BUSINESS.

who has any adequate conception of the ducts of Wichita's big packing house. Not alone the great southwest, not even the United States exclusively is the market for these goods, but every large commercial center of Europe has a regular salaried agent for the Jacob Dold Packing at their respective distributing points and cured meats produced right here in Wichits. These agents are exclusively in the employ of the Wichita house and handle eral Linares. nothing else, and the volume of business they carry on is something wonderful. A partial list of these agents who report to and receive instructions from the Wieb ita house shows the following large cities Wichita cored and dressed meats: Great Britain is represented by London, Liverpool, Manchester, Bristoi, Hull and Newcastle: Ireland by Dublin and Belfast: Scotland by Glasgow and Leith; France by Paris, Marseilles, Havre and Bordeaux, Belgium by Antwerp and Brussels; Holden by Copenhagen, Stettin, Christiana and Stockholm: Germany by Berlin and Hamberg. Added to these metropolises are several smaller points scattered throughout Russia, Italy and all the principal nations of the continent. These men are not brokers at all, but are on a stated the weekly shipments from this big abat-

CURLY KIRK'S OBITUARY.

El Caney, July 8, via Guantanamo, July 4, via Kingston, July 9, via Key West, July 19, via Peabody, July 14.—It has been death for a man to choose from. If a pome granates and get cholers, drink sphere, water and get yellow fever, fall into the Juan river and drown, get kicked by an army mule, smoke a pipe on a powder got no harder hold on life than you can get on an eel with an epileptic fit. The very sun as he comes up in the morning seems to wink the other than you can properly to wink the other than you can be comes up in the morning to hope. C. K. odious.

I am sad. I have been sad all the time. This evening I was strolling in the woods gently singing to myself, as I used to sing in the dear dead past beyond recall, when some one suddenly slammed a shinny club across my shoulders and an deliver the goods,"

What was you singing for?"

Stomach-in-Chief," I said viciously in the greenwood is out of order."

I symmathized with him.

haking with flour sproukled on it and said: at the fateful moment gathered at the day. Look not in south upon me. I can the borse with a hammer and shattered prove it by the almanac. Tomorrow is the work of art. Sunday. Two days we have fought. Two Silence!" I commanded haughtily tak- from the horse's legs.

plan is advisable or not. You tell me, Cur- in their spring sustain the foundation up-Last Monday the Boston Bloomer Girls by Kirk, to charge whenever I think it is good for my giblets to do so or not.

to receive the most compliments were advise with your soldiers? Why don't you consult the privates who have to do the artistic and patriotic dying?" "But there's so many privates," said the general, "I never could get around." "But," I said, putting a look on my face like one I once saw on a statue of Socrepresentative of the whole army?" "Well," said the general, "what would

"I sat down and taking a cigar from the general, said: "We have fought two days. Nothing done, Tomorrow is Sunday, At week ago her last foundling seemed destined to have better luck and remain in-By this time have General Duffy make for second base on Capron's sacrifice hit, and end of its tail. Again heart broken the steal second on a passed built. Then play and Colonel Wood will kick the goal and

"It would mean an awful sacrifice" the she forgot it and there it remained in a general said after following me closely. "General," I said, "war is hell. We must that would stop a freight train on the down grade, and upon investigation the put my foot in it. I had planned a campalgn and agreed to go into it as a priate myself. It meant my death.

he city will be mine. It is terrible, terri-

I almost fainted. I rushed back to the following my plans. An hour ago I went to the captain and told him to go to Shaf-crazy for two days-from the heat. The captain has just returned and says the general says he wishes he had more at day-break in the morning against Gen-

It is all up with me. And to think it is my own campaign which is to kill me. to make of the Eagle. Publish this obit-

Died-For his country at Santiago de Cuba, Mr. C. Kirk. Mr. Kirk was a Rough Rider, having served an apprenticeship as a Wichita motorman. He died while valiantly fighting for his country. Hist ast live in! She'll find out a few things when news; it is only the bad that rends words were: "Let no man falter. Cuba land by Amsterdam and Rotterdam; Swe- say that if I aint plumb killed instantandy). Mr. Kirk was personally known heaven only knows where, while her to the editor and outside his freekles was drunken father was sleeping off a spree a noble man. He has held many positions of trust in his short life, being elected er of Stevens county by a majority of three at one time and two after nomination. At another time he held the position of dog-catcher in Valley Center and acquitted himself with honor and respect. Mr. Kirk leaves no relatives and no money which has not been garnisheed onths ago. His loss is a grevious one. No insurance. He willed his souvenirs now in the hands of the Spanish after a desperate struggle to Dave Leahy, provided Leaky will go out and get them. Otherborn days I never saw such a variety of wise they will revert to the state. It is and see the handsome, genteel, kindhearted Curly gone from this earthly > Keen of mind, strong of fibre Such as he, makes Cuba libre."

P. S., II a. m.-News just come that ns to wink the other eye and say: Cervera went out; Sampson blew him up. these: "The honor of an informal morn-Take a good look at me old fellow. It's We will not take Santiago for a week ing call brought a beaming smile to be and then she'll surrender, And I'll get

THE WORLD AND WICHITA.

There is a modest little woman now whose diffidence only surpasses her in-I looked up. The man who had struck telligence; who has seen more of the me down was none other than General world and its great folk than is permitted one in many thousands. She is an Amer-I arose to my full heighth and saluting lean, but her husband was a German, who was for many years subsequent to "I regret that I have but one life to his death connected with the great Cargive to my country, sir, but by the horn rara marble works of Italy, to which on the forchead of the harvest moon, no point, as a bride, he took her to reside. pot-beilled old bologna sausage like you. The mines of Carrara were known to the apostles, some of whom visited and worked in them, probably Peter among them, In the years following her removal to Because I wanted to, most respected that point, marble contractors and artists in almost every great city of the globe "You have no right to sing," said Gen- commanded his presence, his little wife eral Shafter, sitting down on the grass. accompanying him everywhere. They This is a serious business we have be- lived for several months in Rome, later in fore us and the charming art of warfiling | London, and later in Berlin and other ably describe as the American Renalst the greenwood is out of order."

I saw the general was sail himself and Seville, Cordova and other Spanish cities respleadent in master works in marble "But she had not advanced far enough the general." I said, "we have and in great canvases. She met the old in social ethics to understand why play-

The general dropped his chin on his the predecessor of the present William. The goshfiggled if I know who is to found incomplete in any way it was to most exclusive and expensive school and lost the game last Tuesday. The street I rose to my feet and pointing my ter-tible fore-finger at him said in a voice menths. Finally when it was completed to pass an the status. The young sculp- experience as to the result of the proper from the corner of Main and Douglas, the He rose, pale as a biscuit just before for and his friends had a big holiday and manipulation of corner lots." "Speak man! What do you mean?" great statue to hear the verdiet, which they my finger levelled on him and in they knew was to be favorable. The comawful tones went on:

"Listen. General and caler-in-chief. This is Saturday evening. Yesterday was Frithe chairman arcse and struck the head of the chairman arcse and the chairman arcse arcset arcs

Of course the sculptor was heartbroken

"I know all that" said the general wear- artist had omitted the warts or castors that there was no little caprice in the "Sience!" I commanded haughtily taking a fresh chew of tebacco and fixing she general with my eye "Let me continue. You have falled. Why? Lack counsel. I say task of counsel. This is a counsel. I say task of counsel. This is a in the semblance of the "marguerite". free country. I mean the United States is in the semblance of the "marguerite" flower, which she now wears. This wonter than any other man. And yet here, derful itinerunt lady-rambler has been ing of the Dutchman, the sacrifices of Judge first assumes control he is either you are leading me, a private soldler, into destruction without my consent or countries. Siberia and conversed with nums on the eagerness, gladness, tenderness, brought more easily imposed upon by the class selled in the snows of Brunhilde, the malesty of Wotan, t on which the Tower of Pisa stands, Many of these nuns have not seen day light in "Do all the soldiers think as you?" ask- fifty years. She spent months in the antipodes in Australasia, and once, when in feeble health, upon the recommendation of her physician, who prescribed an ocean voyage, boarded a vessel, with whose captain she was acquainted, at Hull, England, and landed, after a voyage of many months, at San Francisco, United States of America, sailing in a single voyage a at both of the World's Fairs held in America and two in Europe. She has been in Naples, Ventos and Paris, and in almost every city of importance in Europe. China, Japan, the Philippines and Pales-

MISS BUGG'S NEW STORIES.

Miss Lelia Hardin Bugg's new book ener Tales" is a quartet of clever sketches | peat the visit." of United States life in the mid fle west, to which she has given the touch of nature versal; wherever there are hear's to ache | relapse into the wrath of the ungodiy not order their lives according to their neighbors points of view.

Miss Buggs' choice use of English as a "I shall follow your advice," said the her writings a delight to the reader; but and ran up the flower-bordered walk to age is opened, to see if it is dutiable. If front. general arising. "It means the death of she has as well the charm of telling the nine men out of ten, but with 1,000 left, story, always the story, to the happy endtained the reason for the kind welcome given to her previous works-that of good camp. I must stop General Shafter from training and close study of the subject, and ability to idealise a situation. In "The Prodigal's Daughter" she has

> wit. The motive lies in the unhappy life of the orphan girl, whose school days ended. without friends or relatives who take an | theme taken up by one act of profes- down the barn and toaded the lumber on

"Good gracious! what is the girl coming here for? Of course she couldn't help her father, but of all places to want to she gets here. We can't associate with must be libre and the librer she is the everybody; the line's got to be drawn better Curly Kirk will like it." (I will somewhere, and I for one intend to draw it a at girl who used to go barefooted.

> or carousing around saloons. Woman's inhumanity to this woman is interestingly told, and how she is finally rescued from her tormentors by Houston the clever young banker, who had all along been helping defeat plans for her discomfiture.

The second sketch, "Westgate's Past," is a story with a purpose. It is on religious denominational lines. It is a pleas-

"The Pension Roget,' the third of the check for which was nearly $5,000. He stories, tells with interesting detail, and in two and three times a week with stock to the life, of the unkindness and injustice and this check represents only one conwith which a woman is regarded who is, signment.

unchaperoned, the guest of a hotel. "The Major," the fourth and last of the Risg, a codentally discharge his own gun, or ask a regular army officer for a chew of tobarco. Death? Why, death floats around in the air tere like the Cottonwood moultings in Wichita.

That is all. Good-bye, I will not get to sketches, by his maniness and defense of the weak against the strong, brings the whole against the strong, brings the whole a character. He is Morning at 11 o'clock. By that time I'll ing over it, conclude that in its writing the jor over it, conclude that in its writing the property of the author, with ready wit, bright humor typed president, and the iwn. CURLY KIRK. ing over it, conclude that in its writing he is second cousin to Abraham Lincoln. makes no difference what his comrade, wood moullings in Wichita.

There is nothing but death. You have down?

Yet. Can Shafter have turned my plans and sometimes unveiled sarcasm, has been cot no harder hold on life than you can rather pretty face, and she started to meet her friend with a step which would welcome was both effusive and sincere all by himself. to the matron, who received it calmly as her due, and shared the pleasure only in

"As she leaned back amid the pillows with the apparent luxury of the present."

had apparently struck the city in a pro-nounced form, and the few houses that variety, a cross between the Old Colonial and the style of the royal dame, which future writers on architecture will prob-

"But she had not advanced far enough Thook here general. I want, we have fought two days. We have been riddled and randed and randed by Spanish Mansor bullets and we are discouraged. Converse is still in the harbor. We have fought all day and Santiago is still there with all my sourcears which a Spane stole from me. Now who is to blame."

and in great canvases. She met the old of the social ethics to understand why playing for money that was not needed was only a gentlemanty amusement, and playing for money that was needed, and needed and source of the tresidence in Carrara, the German government ordered at the German government ordered at equestrian statue of Emperor Frederick, me. Now who is to blame."

"Mrs.Graham, 'the Windsor Cantatrice,' as Mr. Alston styled her, was a widow

M'r Houston had before remarked that ing the lines in Ovinton, and he had nodays you have led us into the roar and days you have led us into the roar and carnage of battle Santiago and my souvenirs are still there, impregnable.

The committee had discovered that the shortest distance between two points; so that they were usually drawn in curves are still there, impregnable.

The committee had discovered that the shortest distance between two points; so the committee had discovered that they were usually drawn in curves and angles, instead of taking the shortest distance between two points; so the committee had discovered that they were usually drawn in curves are still there.

ebullitions of hope and love; how beautiful he made it all appear."

"All the depths of the girl's warm nature were stirred; for it made a very touching little story, and the slight drawdid not detract in the least from its

"Milton is not a beautiful village. There is a depressing uniformity about the distance of 17,000 miles. She was a visitor straight lines of the houses, and an equally at least 15 per cent less than on the dullest depressing uncertainty about the crooked day in the week. Most of the traveling boy of 15 years ago who goes back a Saturday and Sunday at home together bearded man for a glimpse of the old with some local traveling. It is an exhome—the village whose ugliness and sorception where a piriy will start on a tine are the only strange lands left for didness and commonplace inactivity he long journey on Friday. It is explained her to do on the earth. What is not a has idenized into something sweet and fee's force into that gully, covering his little surprising, as it is interesting, is beautiful and near to nature's heartright with Grimes artillery, jump General the assertion of this much-traveled wom- will feel a hot little lump in his throat and wen't ride unless appointely comand a mistiness about the eyes as he catches sight of Picket hill in the east through this wicket and hit the stake, and make for the middle wicket over here, and make for the middle wicket over here. World. rowed and weatherbeaten by the passing years-have a place in his memory all his avenue. own. But he will not remain long, and it titled "The Prodigal's Daughter and Oth- will be many years before he cares to re-

"At Dearon Tidwell's gate-the girl's that makes the locality and character uni- father was a deacon, too, although upt to or spites to indulge toward those who do he blurted out: 'Clara, you know I'm to go away to school when I'm a little older, but you won't like any other chap while I'm away better than me, will you?" tool, independent of the motive, makes 'On, you say boy,' laughed the little maid, at Wichita to be present when the packthe house."

"Ministers took the riot for texts of serthe inquisition and Philip of Spain. Rural editors who had been contented to puff their pipes and scissor editorials from their metropolitan exchanges on the ter and tell him I was crazy, had been dipped her pen in the same well of real- Evacuation of Egypt and the Orders of ism as the author of "Martin Chuzzle- Barlow, threw away their pipes and wrote without paying was ordered out by long articles with red-hot pens on the Bach fugue, with theme and counterinterest in her, desires to live in Oving- sional agitators after another, until the ton, the only place outside of school walls whole country was in an uproar. Greenwhere she has ever known a home; of ville had not felt so important since the how the social magnates decide that she day it was christened. The grand jury ossible for their set, as one of them | promptly indicted the disturbers that had been identified, and some that had not

L. R. P.

HEAVIEST IN YEARS.

All the several railroads centering at Wichita report unusually heavy pa ger traffic all this season. Most of the travel from here is eastward, the many conventions, annual meetings of national taking large numbers, besides small parties and individuals en route to summer resorts and other points of interest. They all report the business the heaviest in

JUST ONE CHECK.

As an indication of the Importance of ant surprise in that, contrary to the ex-pected, his past was so fine and brave ty, it may be cited that one farmer who that it could not be surpassed in the is a regular shipper to this market lasweek marketed one bunch of cattle, hi

TWO WEEK'S SCHOOLING.

There is an old gentleman in this city His mother was own cousin to the mar- his captain or his colonel thinks politi near each other in Lilinois in the days sents any sort of interference." before the great statesman was known bears the distinction of having been born on February 22, the birthday of the im mortal George Washington. He was born in 1831, and is very active and strong. He is rather proud of the fact that he attended school only two weeks in his bave been graceful but for her increasing yet his conversation shows both good Engach. Her mind had retained its girlish glish and a fund of historic information. lightness but her body had not, and her the rich harvest of a life time reading

THIRTEEN LUCKY THIS TIME. the unlaue distinction of being the thirteenth born of a family of fifteen ch so abundantly supplied by the sable por- dren, and to prove the idle weakness of ter, whose benevolent impulses had been the superstition regarding the unlucky deeply touched by a crisp new bank note, thirteen, she is the sole survivor of this she gave no sign of a past not in harmony large family. Her oldest sister died four years ago at a ripe old age leaving Mrs. Carter all al ne, even those coming after

Kansas streams are among the most uncertain of earth's elements. Chishoim creek is now the lowest it has been in years, and only a few weeks ago the tun bulent stream was washing out all bridges and ruining surrounding fields and perty by its unexpected overflaw. Even he heavy and substantial foot bridge at in places by the heavy flood during the estate, Ballycalra. Mr. Lynch is the in the dusty bed snows where the stream | has come up, it is said, and the matter

HOW THIRTEEN FIGURED. those who put any faith or credence in Hanscome, teller of the First National The general dropped his chin on his to young sculptor got the contract, with vest and thought a moment and then said the understanding that if the status was she came to be educated at Mrs. Elder's the reason the Wichita baseball learn polished off in Europe, for their recollect car conductor collected just exactly thirtions of Matt Morrison had ever been as- icen fares and registered that number. It a committee of three from Herlin arrived they unfortunately, had had no practical thirteen minutes to go down to he station agent of the range of the result length of time being caused by some apparatus getting out of order. There were just thirteen bars. Managur McCloskey. who played first base, had thirteen putouts. The two teams together had thistern errors, and it so happened that if was the thirteenth week from the time the season opened. However, the Wickita there was a good deal of talk about draw- team made a gallant fight against their ill fate and managed to defeat Topoka

CAUGRT ON QUICK.

In the past Wichits has had plenty of olice judges, for the reason that there "For he had been brought up with a have been many changes made. It is reregard for family only a little less deep markable how, after a police juige has been in office for a few months, that he will say: "Ten dellars and costs" without looking up at the culorit. When the without even asking whether I think the vent, the dark, heavy vaults of which tensity-expressing youth, with all the ing after morning. Behave at first he got off and went in When he came out, were normally burned. It was reported and to be in doesn't take long before he says "ten." Probably Judge Mitchell got next to the work quicker than any of his predecessors for he has been in office less than a fortnight and he is levying $19 against all back that scarcely a word of it was true of the old reprobates who appear before

AFRAID OF FRIDAY.

It's a fact that all of the local ticket agents agree on, that travel on Friday is the streets. . . . The Milton is by traveling men coming in to spend on no other theory than that the general public is superstitious of the day Friday,

> COULDN'T GET IT RIGHT. asked of another this week on Dougias

"No I don't. I mean Okmaloba." "Well, let's go get a drink."

"You mean Okmahola."

"Okmaloha."

CAN SEND ONE GLOVE. Prequently it happens at the Wichita postoffice that a present is received from some citizen in Europe to some relative in Wichita. The custom officials in New York spot it and notify the postmaster so the receiver must pay the duty. Many times the present is a pair of gioves. The nons, and Washington and the Pligrim that one glove is not dutlable. So they put one glove in one package and theother in another, and thus escape the tariff.

The other day a renter who had occupled a place in Wichita for three years owner. It made the renter mad, and the menace to free speech. It was like a night after he left he came back, pulled up the pump and put it in a wagon, tore the wagon, took a saw and sawed down all the trees in the front yard and then disappeared with the pump and the barn,

The change in Wichita in respect to the lawn ornamentation is the most marked "It is so easy to prepare one for good history. Oleanders, century plants, cannas, palms and design flower beds can now

> SOLVED THE STAMP LOCATION. Mr. C. H. Webster of this city, with the Battle-Ax Tobacco company, has solved the question of uniformity in placing the new revenue stamps on bank checks. Each check must be canceled with the initials of the signer of the check, Mr. Webster places the stamp on the left of the space reserved for the signature or each check. Now he begins to sign his name on the stamp and gets the letters "C. H. W." on the stamp, the "ebster running off the stamp onto the white SOLDIERS ARE INDEPENDENT. The Kansas volunteers, if they are still to vote in the Kansas election. It is expected that their votes will be just as they would have voted at home. An old soldier said yesterday: "The most perfectly disciplined and obedient soldier in quite a character, He is M. S. Hasty and hog on ice when it comes to voting. It tyred president, and the two families lived cally, he votes just as he pleases and re-check. This saves time in writing the

MADE BIG MONEY.

The number of houses being painted in Wichita is constantly increasing. It is said the big money in Wichita this year and the Standard Oil company.

IS A CHAMPION NOW, Joe Henley, a vign painter, who owned Kansas City. He broke a long distance record the other day.

CAN THIS BE TRUE!

The Populists of Kansas have hit upon plan for defeating the Republicans, according to the Atchison Globe. It is to start a whisky war in Sedgwick county, W. E. Stanley's home county. Wichita, has had a disastrous experience with whisky wars. An attempt will be made trance of Central park, New York. preventing the officials of that city from censing the joints. Each an injunction exists at present against Leavenworth, and the war will be carried on there by having the Leavenwarth officials cited be fore the supreme court for contempt.

MR. LYNCH IN DUBLIN. Mr. Thomas Lynch of this city is still in Dublin, where he is very jubilant over his chances of securing possession of his rightful hour, but the question of a bond told the following story: "Fifteen years ago I lived in Lexington. Ill. A man by the name of Mahon ran a business in the Chicago Board of Trade disappeared, leaving the company two housand dollars behind. The citizens of the fown petitioned Mabon to riose his office, which he did. The young man's father settled the shortage with the railroad company and the town petitioned. them to reinstate the young man, He was got into railroad work and is now division superincendent on one of the big roads

IS NOW DIVISION SUPERINTENDENT. Discussing the disappearance of R.

THOSE BOND SUBSCRIPTIONS. The highest case number of receipt for and subscriptions received in Wichita is coupans will be for order August first.

YELLOW POTATO SACKS. The curious looking yellow appearant of petato sacks as handled by wholesalers this year is due to the fact that they are buggy and drove home. The next day when he came to his work he looked around for his wheel to find it gone. Falling to find it he went to the police station when own. The entry read: "Bicycle, drunk and dollar and got his wheel out of disgrace.

THOUGHT IT WAS MR EUGENE FIELD.

R. E. Stuart, at Miller's drug store looks just like Eugene Field. While Mr. Stuart was in Chicago some years ago he was walking along Polk street when a young school boy, backing along the pavement and playing "tag-away" with his mates, fammed square up against him Looking around in surprise, the little fellow said, "Hello, Mr. Eugene Field."

ARE PRIVILEGED TO GET OUT. Mayor Ross gots a great many letters from corporations of one kind and another that want franchises and contracts saying that the city council is cutting margins till enterprises will have to go Mr. Ross invariably replies that corporations that don't want to do bustness with Wichita on Wichita's plans can go out as soon us they please.

THEY OBEY THE SIGN COMMANDS. All over the new park there are signs injunction is sacredly observed. No- use of rouge on the stage at night. where in the country nor in other parts of the city-do people pay any attention to man people who pay meney to see them such signs unless there is a fence in go through a blood-and-thunder plot, the

TAKING A TEMPORARY REST. That irrigation matter that is yet to be developed into a legal status is resting temporarily while Judge Jawett, Dr. Graves and Representative Rutledge committee has visited Arkansas and secured promise of a substantial support rules: MATTER OF STATISTICS.

cream and lemonade are served.

GOT HIS SHEEPSKIN. Bill Green, the colored gentleman who so long mirrored shoes in McNeal's bar-Wichita company at Topeka. Yesterday to a fine of ten dellars. he wrote home that he had got "his sheepskin from the big house" this commission uniform, which will cost $51, uniform, which will cost $54. JOKE ABOUT WICHITA. A joke in this week's Judge shows that Wichita's safety in the present war is understood in the east. The joke is as ful-

First Spaniard: "Those Americans may say all they wish about our ships being afraid to go out to fight them, but for a of each entertainment and remain until contemptible, cowardly, underhanded ruse they are far ahead of anything known." the close of same. Those falling to comply will be fined $2.00.

terday was given up to a celebration over erly. Therefore anyone causing a "stage all Spain in honor of the hombardment walt" will be first one dollar, and destruction of Wichita by our fleet-thing? First Spaniard: "Not the poltroons to- one dollar for each offense.

Wichita, is too far inland to be bom-WICHITA TEN YEARS AGO.

at Providence Wells. Pacey is now at lars. went down in the Pacific the other day. Charles T. Dazey, the playwright, was dollars. spending the summer in the city finishing

Joseph Maddy. M. Brooks of Columbus, O., was visit- the manager. ing Mr. George P. Locke of College Hill

The Shakespeare club gave a picnic in company will be given, and any perform-Griffensiein's park. Mr. Cleaveland medo er left behind will be obliged to pay his visit his parents. Mr. Carlisle died week fine of five dollars. before last in New York City.

Main street. M. O. Roberts sold out the Manhattan | nishings or other property. botel and was running a hotel at the en-trance of Central park, New York.

13-Ladlee must wear dresses not short-er than a kie length and will be requir-

Skinner, of the Niederlander office. The Globe iron works had erected and thety. posed of S. D. Pullet, M. W. Levy, W. P. meritorious performance and do not ento begin the erection of the building ager in taking there sufferling votes,

Ill. to make Wichita their home.

The Crescent crew of the Wichits Boul called for trouble to me. club went to Pullman to enter the regetts. The management will endeavor to make there. The craw consisted of George Mc. it comfortable for the members of the Donald, Harry Lytie, Eugene Garnett and company and will expect proper recipris-

Hill. They were from Texas and were same will in no way inconvenience ladies bound overland to Dakors. Patrick McDonald of Gien Mary farm was struck by lightning while driving

Married-Mr. George Tew and Miss Ida May Tilton, at the home of the bride's Judge Laucke was thrown from his along a country road and killed.

buggy and badly injured. Judge Campbell (Tiger Bill), as candidate for atturney general on the Democratic ticket, addressed the Tilden club said emphatically that he was not a can- se mrs name other than M. W. Levy. didate for the state senate.

McCoy, Tom M. Mechan. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smythe and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Oliver went to Wagon Wheel Gup.

only assesses them $5 and costs, but it he walked back to his office, got into his that William Murphy was hurned to death, as he could not be found. Forty mules died in the fire.

The following persons attended a picule at Riverside: Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Benthe found on the day book the entry and ley, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Locke, Mr. description of a wheel which fitted his and Mrs. A. H. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Gradisorderly, fined H." Mr. Clapp paid the Mrs. Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, Mrs. ham, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jobes, Mr. and Young, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Wadsworth, Mrs. Brooks, Mr. P. C. Lewis, Mrs. M. J. Locke, Mrs. Harris; Misses Kate Graham, Ida Locke, Sue Gardner, Lillie Lewis, Gertie Moore, Dalsy Richardson, Ellen Long, Burns, Conley, Merrill, Lewis, Dyor, Allen and Harris,

Miss Bell Wells entertained. Her guests were: Misses Eva and Maggie Simpso Nellie MoPherson, Elia Laughlin, Dessa Johnson, Polio and Effa Barnett, Ripperton, Virgaline Lucy, Josie Millen, Luctta Rush; Mesers Will Laughlin, Gus Reddish, Charles Dillon, James Simpe Charles Lacey, Leo Varner, Will Weeks, Dale Snively, Harry Dunbar, Carl Johnson and Sherman Gates.

ACTORS WHO VISIT US.

Wichitz does not get the best of theatrical attractions. But the average actor when he strikes Wichita feels as big as Booth, while the poorest actives that ever plugged across a stage feels as superior as Modjeska when she walks up Main "Do Not Drive Off the Road," and the street with her face white from the heavy

> But superior as they feel to the compoor actors and actresses are mostly slaves. They are hodged in by rules which cause them constant apprehension, and life is not a happy one in any senso

The Eagle has had for some time a copy of the rules and regulations of the manager of a traveling troops and now gather funds and facts for pushing it to publishes them below. It may be that a finish. Not many people k ow that a they will reach some body or girl who is foolishly stage struck. Here are the

I-All members of the company are expected to present themselves at all times, and in all places, in a manner becoming A young man on East Douglas who has ladies and gentlemen, and as much vare s penchant for statistics says there are must be taken for appearances off the twenty socials a week in Wichita from stage as on the same. Any member using insulting language to the manager or his representative shall be liable to immediate dismissal:

2-Intemperance under any circumstan ces will not be tolerated; any members of the company presenting themselves in ber shop, is now second lieutenant in the an intusicated count iton shall be subject

3-Rehearsals shall be called as often as the stage manager may does proper, Any performer who shall absent himself of herself from any rehearsal or refuse 10 accept the part assigned shall Intitit three dollars. 4-Auy performer or musician who shall absent himself or herself from any per formance or parade shall be subpleet to a fine of one week's salary. hand one hour previous to the beginning

"They certainly are. 6-Performers will be giv, ample itma to "make up" for their tures and will But what did they do?"

First Spaniard: "Why, you know yes. be expected to do so promptly and prop-

1-Performer making lend and unnec-Now after ridiculing our fleet as being essary notices to the annoyance of those afraid to come out and fight, what do upon the stage, smaking upon or about the stage, splitting upon the stage, in-Second Spaniard: "Surrender every, viting acquaintances behind the scenes gambling in public pinces, will be fined the stuge, in botels, cars or other public places will be considered improper, ill timed and out of place and any person John G. Parcy was spending a few days violating this rule will be fined two dul-

2-Any performer found stailing of Seattle, and owned the big steamer which hanging out in salsons will be fined two 15-Any performer calling upon making dates, or meeting ladies or muching in Died-Mrs. Spence, the mother of Mrs. any form will be subject to a fine of from two to ten dollars, in the discretion of It-Due notice of the departure of the

own transportation until joining the W. K. Carlisle went to Washington to company and in addit ion be subject to a 13-The management selicits as tattling E. E. Hilton purchased an interest in or story carrying. Performers will be the shoe store of Mr. Glaze, on North required to pay for any and all breakage

Died-Mrs. Skinner, mother of E. N. ed to change wardrobe for each specialty and act ,and dress the same next and was runing a sixty-horse power engine. I pay you "good money" and desire to The school board at that time was com- give my parrons a clean, refined and

Campbell, C. A. Van Ness, A. Katz, J. gage you for the purpose of affording W. Wingard, W. R. Tucker and George | you am opportunity to wear and pute old The foundation of the wire nall factory | 16-Members of the company wift, when was completed and the brick was on hand | necessary, he required to satisf the man distributing presents, ste Mr. Albert E. Munn of College Hill was | 15-ft would be with regret that the drowned while bathing in the Walnut forfeits attending a treation of the above rules should be enforced. No excuse, The family of Mr. Charles Ballance, of however, will be received from offending the steam stone mill, arrived from Peoria, parties. By complying thorowith, it will he a saving of money to pourself and HE-nation, attention to howiness, and rette-The Eighth United States cavalry are new to our another. A strict observable rived in the city and camped on College, of the above rules will insure it, while the

> and gentlemen. IT IS SOMETHING LIKE. The park of Wichin new looks in like a park than anything of the kind in the west. Even the man who planes In clearing out the jungles and grading

MIGHTY PRETTY AVENUE. One of the fixest weeture in the city to University Avenue leading up to the here in Wichita.—Other speakers were Friends University There appears to be Judge A. N. J. Cook, Fred Benney, J. G. a concerted movement among the resistance of the contract dents to make their lawns similar in design and neathers.

WOULDN'T SIGN OTHERWISE. In a card in the Eagle, W. E. Stanley | It is said that M. W. Lary never sign-A great fire in the history of the city. was asked to sign papers, which would the burning of the street car stables on have been advantageous to him. The tarty North Main street, took place. William taking his signature domanded that the Gorke and Tobias Wiels, Iwo employes, sign his full name, but Mr. Lary refuse